

Small Group Invitation Cards

Cut apart. Set one on a student's desk while you circulate — never read names aloud. The card never says which session type it is. Everyone gets one every two-week cycle, including your strongest students.

You're invited to _____

Name: _____

Round / time: _____

Bring: _____

ElevateTheNorm.com

You're invited to _____

Name: _____

Round / time: _____

Bring: _____

ElevateTheNorm.com

You're invited to _____

Name: _____

Round / time: _____

Bring: _____

ElevateTheNorm.com

You're invited to _____

Name: _____

Round / time: _____

Bring: _____

ElevateTheNorm.com

You're invited to _____

Name: _____

Round / time: _____

Bring: _____

ElevateTheNorm.com

You're invited to _____

Name: _____

Round / time: _____

Bring: _____

ElevateTheNorm.com

You're invited to _____

Name: _____

Round / time: _____

Bring: _____

ElevateTheNorm.com

You're invited to _____

Name: _____

Round / time: _____

Bring: _____

ElevateTheNorm.com

Consult Booking Sheet

Ten-minute slots. Post names and dates only — never the reason. Nobody comes empty-handed: bring a draft, a problem you got wrong, or a question. Stretch consults go on this same sheet.

Day / date	Slot	Name	What I'm bringing
	Slot 1
	Slot 2
	Slot 1
	Slot 2
	Slot 1
	Slot 2
	Slot 1
	Slot 2
	Slot 1
	Slot 2

Teacher tally — check every two weeks

Private. Session type: F = Fix-It, L = Level-Up / Stretch, P = Sneak Peek / Draft review. If the same names fill most seats three cycles running, or your strongest students haven't been in weeks, reshuffle.

Student	Cycle 1	Cycle 2	Cycle 3	Cycle 4	Next step (student's words)